

We're hiring:

Teacher

CLOSING DATE

October 27, 2026 or until position is filled

ON-SITE

Permanent – Part Time

HOURS OF WORK

Monday to Friday • 8:00 AM – 4:00 PM
Week on; week off rotation • 40 hours biweekly

Now Hiring: Teacher (NL Certified or Indigenous Teacher Certification)

Charles J. Andrew Healing Centre – Located on reserve in Sheshatshiu, Labrador
Permanent Part-Time | Weekdays | Benefits Included

Are you looking for meaningful work that makes a real difference in the lives of children and families? The Charles J. Andrew Healing Centre is seeking a compassionate, dedicated Teacher to join our multidisciplinary team in delivering education within our 10-week block residential mental health and addictions treatment programs.

This is a unique opportunity to teach in a small, supportive, culturally grounded environment where learning is individualized, relationship-based, and deeply impactful.

Who This Role Is Perfect For

- Retired teachers seeking flexible, part-time work
- Substitute teachers looking for a permanent part-time role with benefits
- New graduates eager to begin meaningful work with families
- Indigenous teachers or educators with Indigenous certification

- Educators passionate about mental health, wellness, and community support

About the Classroom

- Multigrade, multidisciplinary classroom
- NL Provincial Curriculum
- 1–6 students
- 10-week block treatment program on a rotational one week on, one week off
- Collaborative, trauma-informed environment

Position Details

- Permanent Part-Time
- Monday–Friday, 8:00 AM–4:00 PM
- 40 hours biweekly
- Benefits: Medical, Dental, Pension

What You Bring

- NL Teacher Certification or Indigenous Teacher Certification
- Ability to teach multigrade curriculum
- Warm, patient, adaptable teaching style
- Commitment to trauma-informed, culturally safe practice

How to Apply

Submit your résumé and cover letter to: hiring@cjay.org